

U.K. deports man living in church. (1989, January 21). The globe and mail.

U.K. deports man living in church

LONDON —A Sri Lankan who for two years sought asylum in an Anglican church before being dragged out by police was deported to Sri Lanka by the British government yesterday. Mr. Mendis moved into the church in Manchester after being issued a deportation order in 1986, 13 years after arriving in Britain as a student. /AP