Planes bombed and strafed Tiger positions last week after Tiger anti-aircraft gunners fired at Chinese-built F-7 aircraft on a reconnaissance mission over Jaffna, a senior military commander. said yesterday.

"We were forced to fire," he said.

The F-7s were flying over Kondavil when anti-aircraft gunners had fired at the planes, the Commander said.

Later F-7s and Argentine-built attack planes strafed and bombed Kondavil and Gurunagar amidst intensive Tiger anti-aircraft fire.
